LAST OF THE PITTSBURGERS.

The Pirates Wind Up the Series in Brooklyn with Hanlon Fighting Hard for an Even Break.

BATTING ORDER.

ASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN. May 25.-"In again and out again, up again and down again." was the wall of Brooklyn's chief rooter this after-noon. That fellow was dumb for the two days the Pittsburg Pirates were in town. The success of his favorin Saturday's game regained for him his nerve-wrecking voice and hi favorite yell. He did all he could this afternoon to help the Ned Hanlon boys take the final game from the cham plons. Two games to one in favor of the fellows from the "City of Smoke" was the way the present series stood. To even up the meeting was all Hanlon had Virgil Garvin very near to the point of speaking his name for the pitching ob, but it was 3.59 o'clock when he did ter something definite.

Garvin has a good record as a pitchjob, but it was 3.59 o'clock when he did utter something definite.

He has another record, that of flinging the ball somewhere near to the roof of grand stands instead of into the catcher's mitt. He will not do that sort of thing very much longer under Hanlon and it behooved him. If he was the choice for pitcher, to just anchor to Mother Earth and do his best with the Pittsburg batters from there this afternoon. Sam Leever, who spends his winter months teaching youngsters how to read and write, was in line to pitch for the Pirates.

Sam has been doing very good in the pitching line this year and against Brooklyn he did not expect to have his string mont's high bounce and threw the Fi-rate out. Two fouls and one over the plate retired Clarke on strikes. Sebring did the exact same thing as his chief.

Sheckard could not locate Leever's curves. Wagner got Dobbs's bounder to to first. McCreedle drew a pass to first Doyle raised a foul fly to Bransfield.

Second Inning.

Wagner's bounce to Jordan was at first ahead of him. Garvin's hands were warmed in stopping Bransfield's boun-der, but he got the ball to first. Jordan helped Leach out. No runs. Dahlen swung at three wide ones.

Ritter hit a long fly to Clarke. Flood's drive to right field was for two bags. Jordan was a victim in his roller to Kruger. No runs. Third Inning.

Dahlen got Kruger's rap to Doyle in time. Phelps was put out by Garvin. Leever fanned. No runs. Garvin got a walk. Sheckard fanned again. Dobbs's rap to Wagner was Garvin's undoing at second. Dobbs stole second. Wagner threw out Mc-Creedie, No runs.

Fourth Inning.

Fourth Inning.

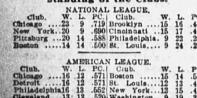

Baumont was hit, and walked. Clarke's sacrifice bunt was handled by Doyle. Beaumont stole third. Sebring's rap to Flood resuted in Beaumont being caught at the plate. Sebring failed to steal second. No runs.

Doyle reach second on his rap over third. Leach made a great catch of Dahlens foul fly. He took it six inches from the stand. Ritter fanned. Just as Flood got a base on balls Doyle tried to steal third, but was caught. No runs.

Fifah Inning.

Wagner made Pittsburgs first safe hit, a songle to centre. Bransfield's attempt attempted sacrifice Was Wagner's fin-ish at second. Leach struck out. Flood closed Kruger out. No runs.

Father Reaney Brings Sailors HARLEN CREWS Brooklyn Navy-Yard.

Father W. H. I. Reaney, chaplain of the receiving ship Columbia, who, it is said, defeated Tom Sharkey in a boxing bout when the ex-sailor heavy-weight was in that service, is such a great ad-weight who recently knocked out Chris The battle between Palmer and Sullivan should be one of the most bruising Himmler in a few rounds at Savnnah, van should be one of the most bruising ever seen in England. The men are fearless of a hard blow and are game. Palmer is not as clever a boxer as Sullivan and is not as good a jabber. On that account Sullivan has an excellent chance of beating him. If by any chance for beating him is a count sullivan should lose it will be after he has given Palmer one of the hardest fights the Englishman ever had. In the bout between Tokell and Bowker the former will probably be awarded the decision on points.

boxer of this city, will meet Jack Mc-Clelland, the clever Pittsburg fighter, Another battle slated to be held in in a ten-round bout to-night on the out-England to-night will be that between skirts of Pittsburg. Maynard has been skirts of Pittsburg. Maynard has been training hard for the contest and expects to give McClelland a good beating. Maynard will be seconded by "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, who is his new manager. Maynard will have to fight better than he has been doing to beat McClelland, as the latter is a clever lad with his hands and besides can punch very hard. The winner of the bout will be matched to box Terry McGovern. George Dixon, the ex-feather-weight Phailham, another of Johnny Bull's scrappers. They will clash in a twenty-round bout at Birmingham. They will battle for a purse of $500. According to English critics, Phailham is a great fighter and fikely to give Dixon his quietus. "Philadelphian Jack" O'Brien will in all probability be matched to fight the Feltz to Ment Sullivan.

winner of the bout between Palmer and Sullivan. O'Brien received a cablegram Sullivan. O'Brien received a cablegram on Saturday from a sporting man of Newcastle-on-Tyne offering him a purse of $4,000 to meet the winner on Aug. 19. O'Brien cabled his answer, asking for a $5,000 purse with $500 for training expenses, and if his terms are accepted he will make the trip, sailing early in July, O'Brien boxed with Palmer while abroad and knows his style very well. He thinks Palmer will defeat Sullivan, but feels sure that he can easily beat the Briton, who fights at about 165 pounds.

Tommy Feltz, who recently knocked out Clarence Forbes, of Chicago, in less than one round in St. Louis, will try conclusions with Tommy Sullivan, of South Brooklyn, in a twenty-round bout before the West End A. C., of St. Louis, Thursday night. Sullivan ought to secure the decision on points. Feltz had to give away weight in order to induce Sullivan to fight him.

THREE RACES.

Reliance, Columbia and Constitution Will Sail on the Sound io-Morrow, Thursday and Saturday.

Reliance, the new cup yacht, will be thoroughly tried out this week. Beginning to-morrow, she will have three races against the Columbia and Constitution. The races will be sailed on the Sound, off Glen Cove, under the auspices of the New York Yacht Club. Yachtsmen are hoping for a good wind tha will give Reliance a chance to show her ability in a beat to windward.

One reason for Reliance's fine work is unquestionably due to the splendld way in which she is sailed by Cantain Charlie Barr, and yachtsmen think if Constitution and Columbia were sailed half as well there would be no great distance between the boats at the finish.

There is a disposition in some quarters

The preparations completed promise an enthusiastic send-off for Sir Thomas Lipton's fleet, which will leave for America on Thursday at 1 P. M. Both the Shamrocks and Sir Thomas's steam yacht Erin are, now docked preparatory to their departure. A flotilla of turbine and other steamers, tugs and yachts has been engaged to escort the fleet down the Clyde. Many prominent men have accepted invitations to be present at the banquet which will be given to Sir Thomas Lipton by the Corporation of Greenock to-morrow. Sir Thomas expects that the yachts will make the passage under three weeks.

Speculation as to the probable winner of the championship was rife, but it in noway compared to the conditions which exist to-day. How hard the bowlers worked is best evidenced by the tying of three teams for first prize and the cup. Only a couple of games separated the fourth team from the leaders.

The three teams have many followers, and when they meet to-morrow night the biggest crowd ever assembled around a bowling alley is sure to be on hand. To pick the probable winner is next to impossible. No three teams aromore evenly matched.
